Duke University Summer Session

Courses in Religion

THERE will be two terms of the Duke University Summer Session of 1952 extending over a period of twelve weeks. The first term of six weeks will begin on June 11 and end on July 19. The second term of six weeks will begin on July 22 and end on August 29.

Courses in religion and related fields will be offered in the Duke University Summer Session. These courses are subject to all the regulations of the Duke University Summer Session as published in the Summer Session Bulletin. The undergraduate credits secured will count on the Bachelor of Arts degree. Divinity School credits will count on the Bachelor of Divinity and Master of Religious Education degrees. Graduate School credits will count on the Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees. These credits may, of course, be transferred to other colleges, universities, and theological schools in the same way that such transfer of credit is usually made.

Candidates for degrees from Duke University should be formally admitted to the school which will confer the degree. Candidates for the B.D. and M.R.E. degrees must be admitted to the Divinity School; candidates for the A.M. and Ph.D. degrees must be admitted to the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences.

Fees and Expenses

The University Fee is as follows:

Covering registration, tuition and medical care $12.00 per semester hour.

One half of the above fee is rebated to students enrolled in the Divinity School, who will pay $6.00 per semester hour.

Applications for admission may be obtained from either the Divinity School office or the Summer Session office.

Room and Board

In all dormitories the rate of room rent is $21.00 for each student, where two students occupy a room. There are a limited number of single rooms available at the rate of $30.00 for the six weeks. Graduate and undergraduate students will be assigned to separate dormitories in so far as is possible. The Divinity School and Housing Bureau will be glad to assist married students in locating accommodations for themselves and their families off the campus. Occupants of the University rooms furnish their own bed linen, blankets, pillows, and towels. Applications for rooms should be made to the Housing Bureau.

Board will be provided in the University cafeteria at approximately $67.50 for six weeks depending upon the needs and tastes of the individual.

Advanced Degrees

The degrees of Bachelor of Divinity and Master of Religious Education are offered in the Divinity School.

The degrees offered in the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences are Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy.

Graduate study in religion leading to the degrees of Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy may be pursued in three fields: (1) Biblical Studies; (2) Studies in Church History; and (3) Studies in Christian Theology and Ethics.

Candidates for advanced degrees must be graduates of colleges of recognized standing.

Upon request the Director of the Summer Session or the Dean of the Divinity School will furnish bulletins containing detailed description of the academic requirements for the degrees of Bachelor of Divinity, Master of Religious Education, Master of Arts, and Doctor of Philosophy.

Religious Services

University religious services are held each Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock in the University Chapel. All students are cordially invited to attend.

Courses of Instruction

(The University reserves the right to withdraw any course in which fewer than ten enroll.)

Courses carrying credit in the Divinity School only are numbered from 101 to 199. Courses approved for credit in both the Divinity School and the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences are numbered above 200. Students entering the Divinity School for the first time in the Summer Session of 1952 will choose courses numbered from 101 to 199.
